The 1973-74 Hornet Annual is dedicated to Mr. William Shannon. Mr. Shannon has been an administrator in the Hillsdale district for six years. The Hornet Annual Staff thanks Mr. Shannon on behalf of the Hillsdale High School students for his many services and most important to us, his friendship.

Friendship Light
Margo Swan

Frienship is a hand on a stormy night,
A smile or tear in life's long flight;
Someone to share the hurt and the pain,
Or the triumphant joy of the least little gain.

It's a smile in the crowd when all seems lost,
To hang on to, whatever the cost.
A friendship so true, and dear to the heart,
That nothing could ever cause two to part.

It's never mistrusting or putting aside, There's never an idea that you haven't tried.
It's being so close and meaning so much,
That surely the hearts of two friends do touch.

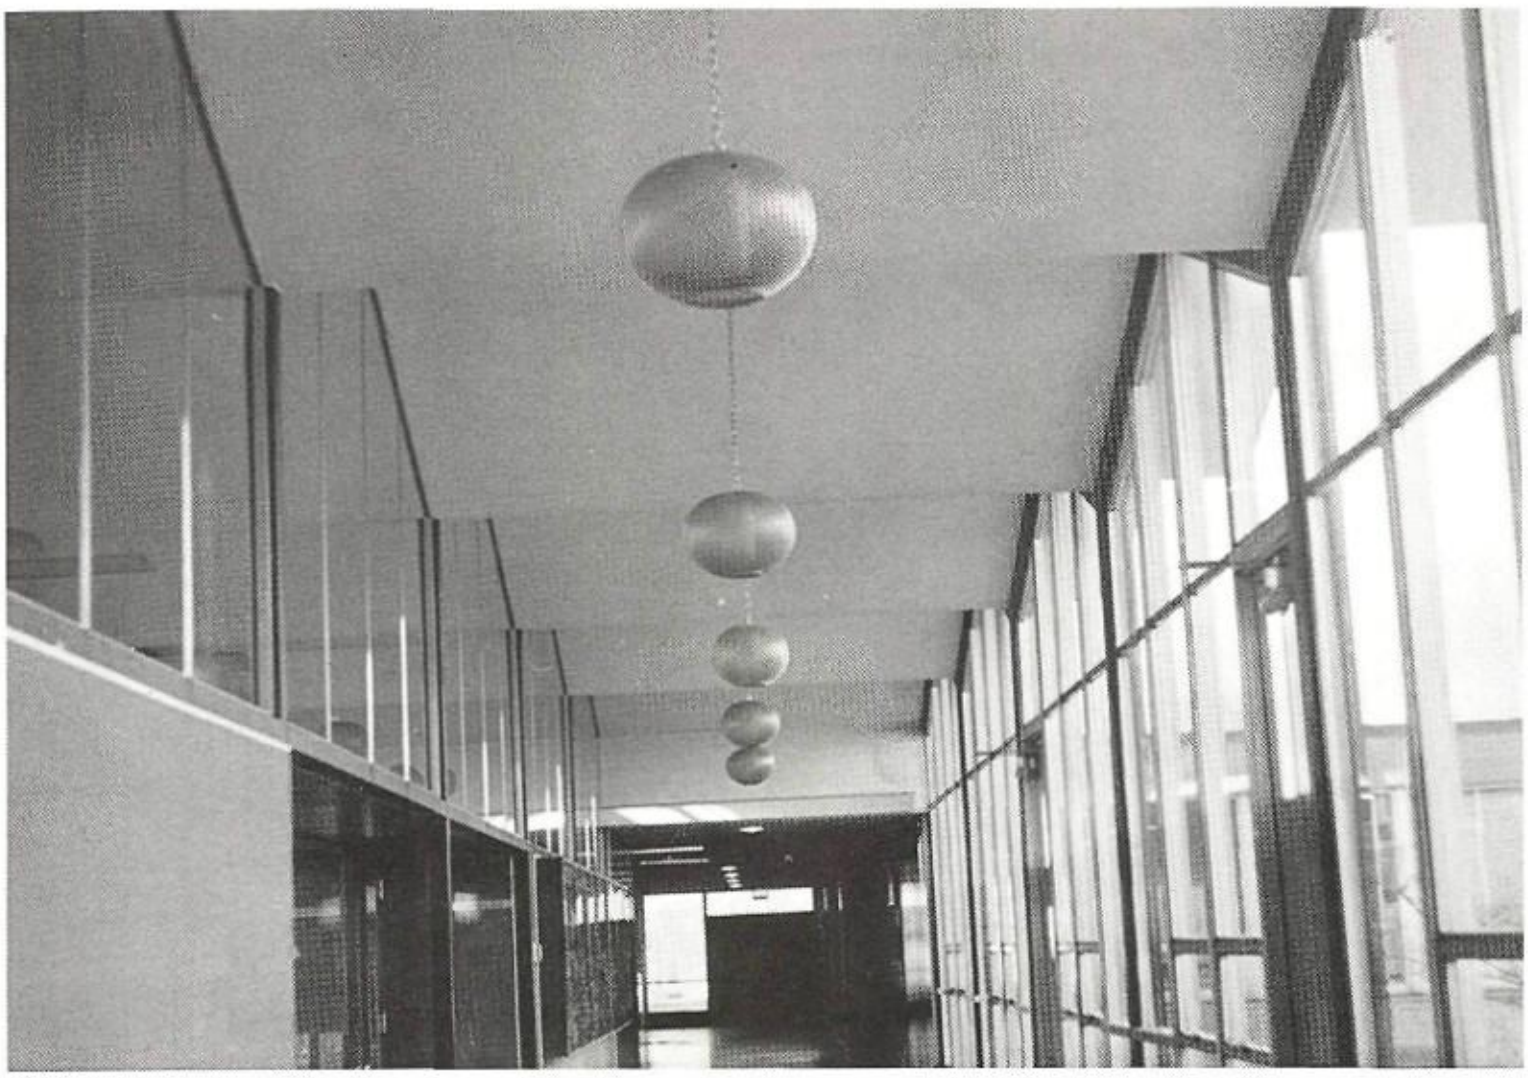
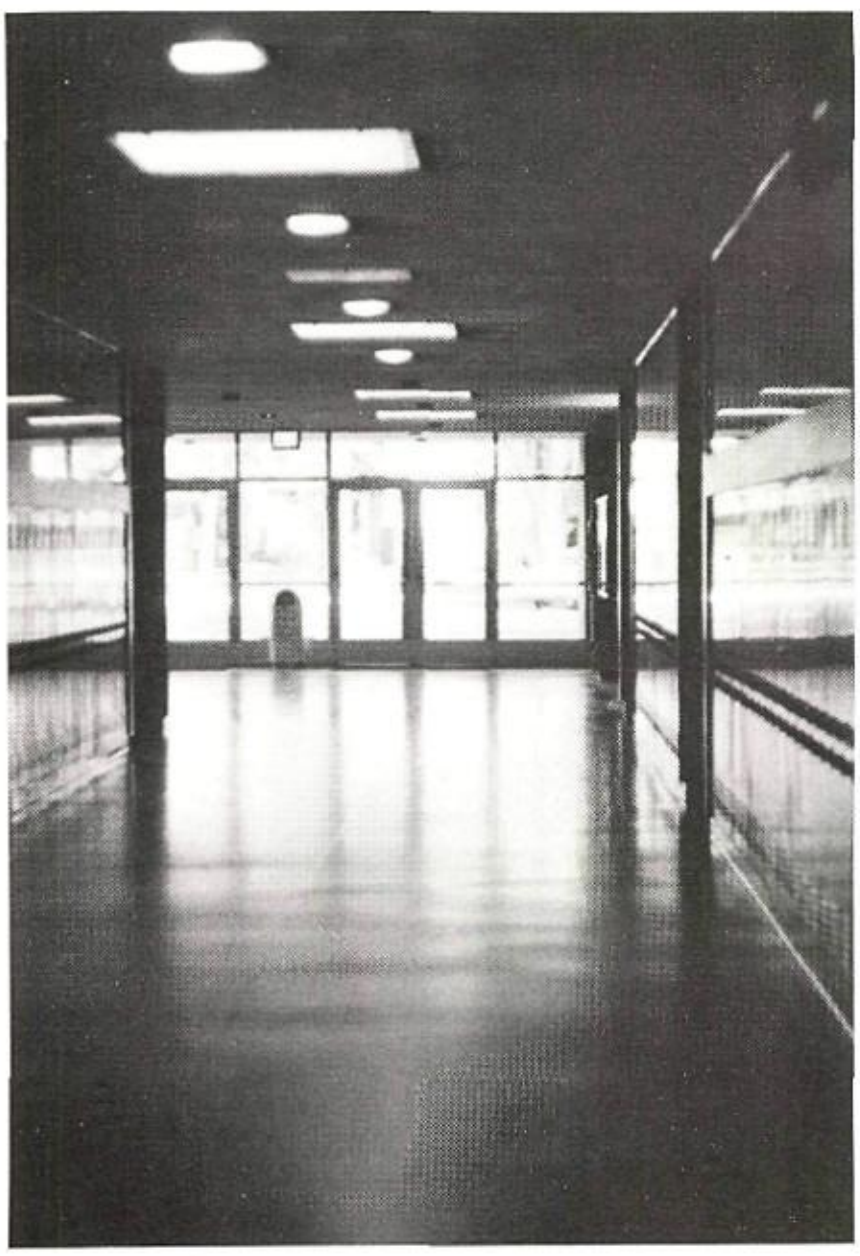
We May Never Pass

This Way Again

Life, So they say, is but a game and they let it slip away.

Love, Like the autumn sun, should be dying, but it's only just begun.

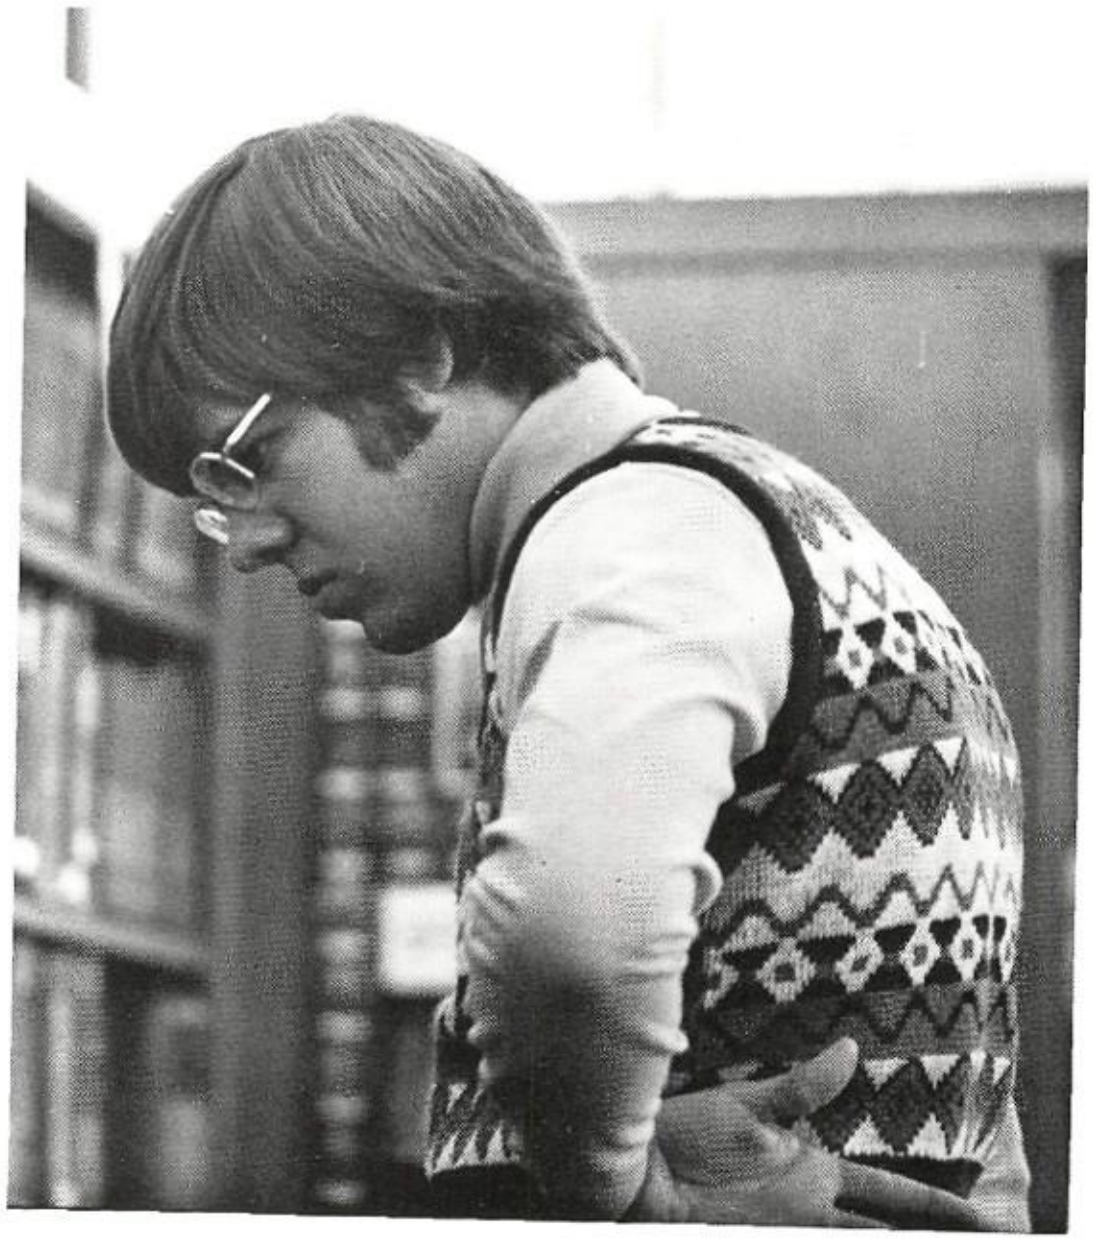




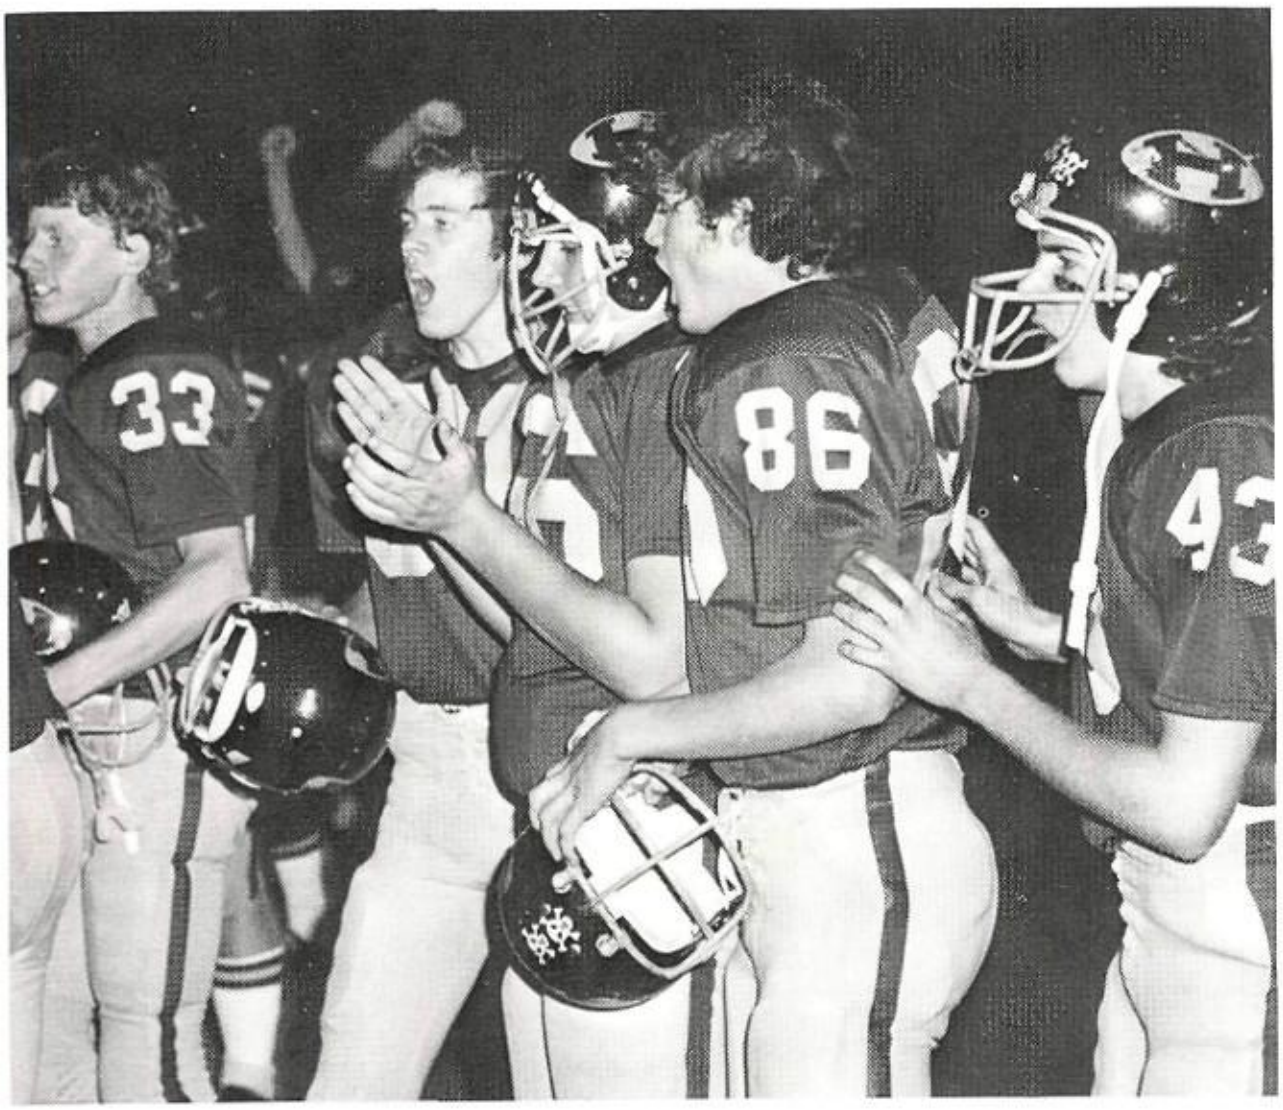
Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
They don't see just where we're going.
All the secrets in the universe
Whispers in our ears,

"All the year come and go, They can't stop, always on!"
We may never pass this way again . . . . .

Dreams, so they say, are for the fools and they let them drift away



Peace, like the silent dove, should be flying but its only just begun.



Like Columbus in the olden days, We must gather all our courage, Sail our Ships out on the open sea,

Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go, They can't stop, always on!
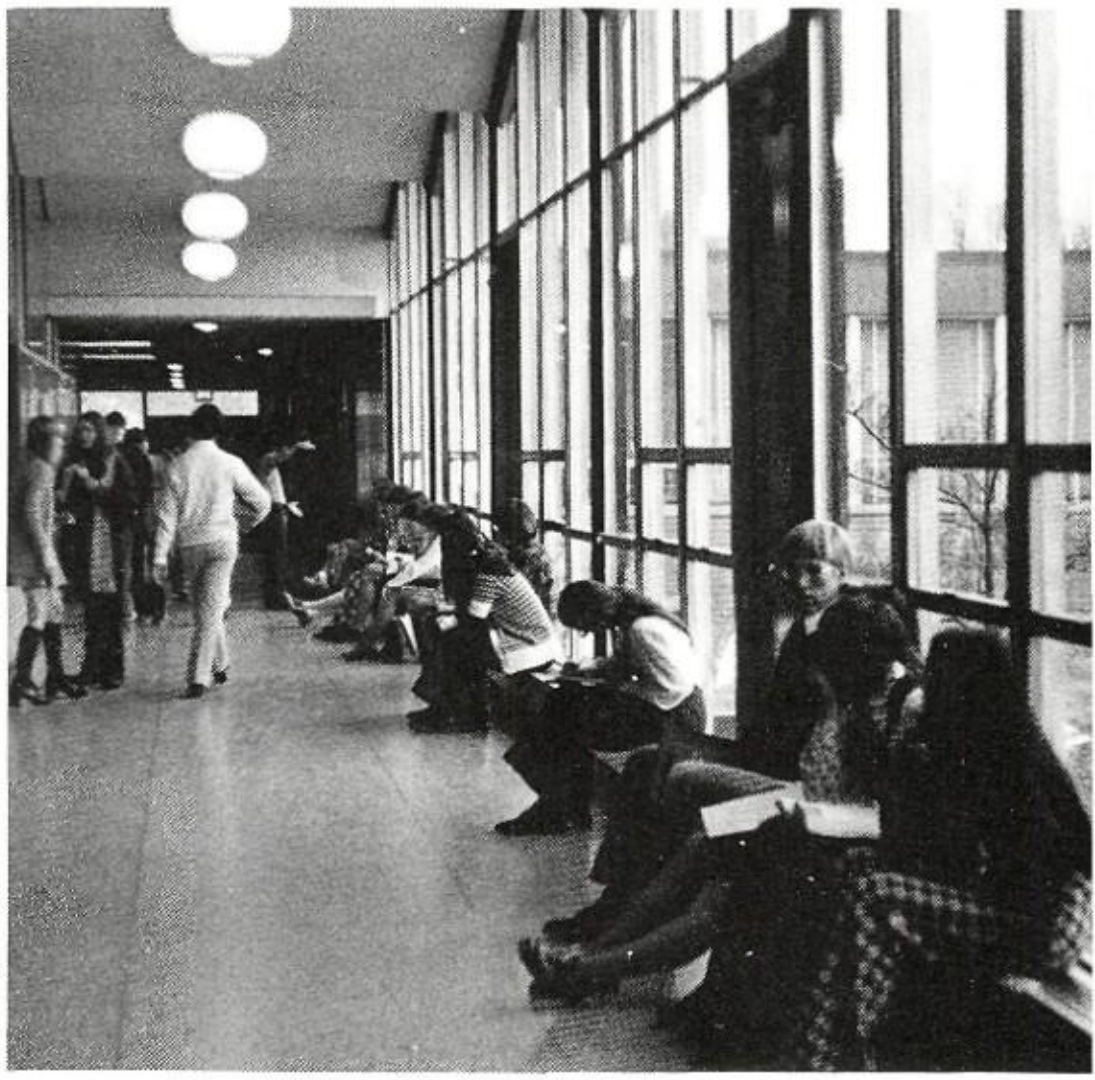
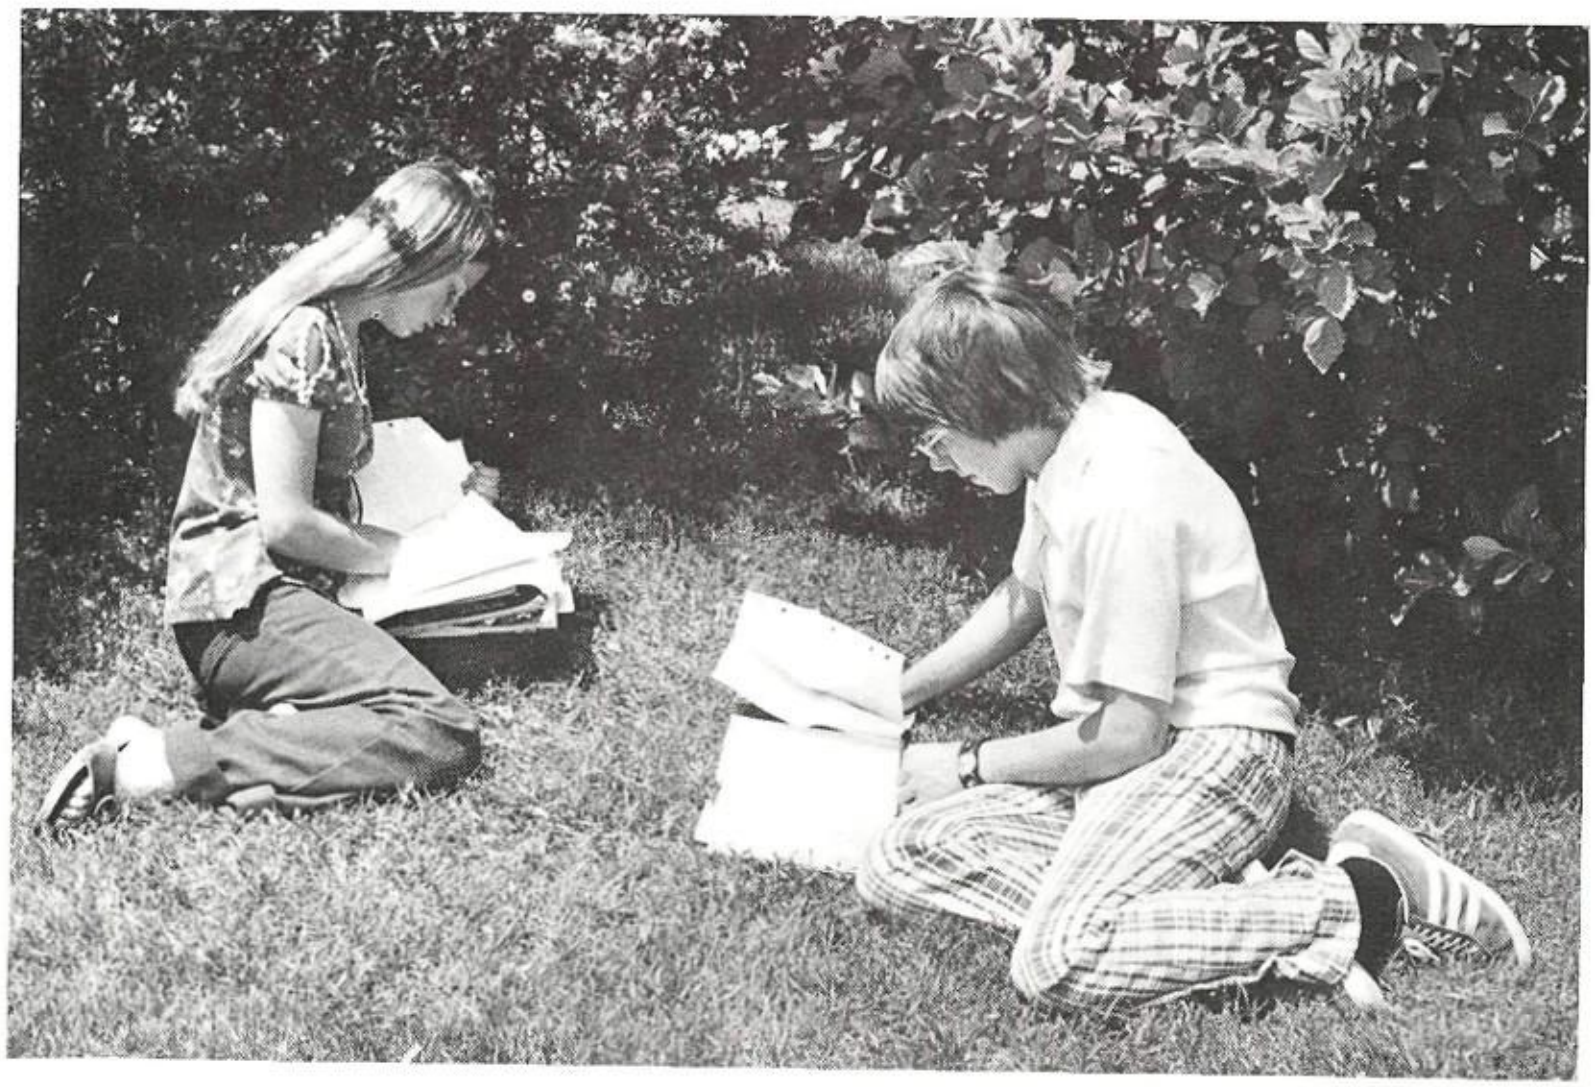
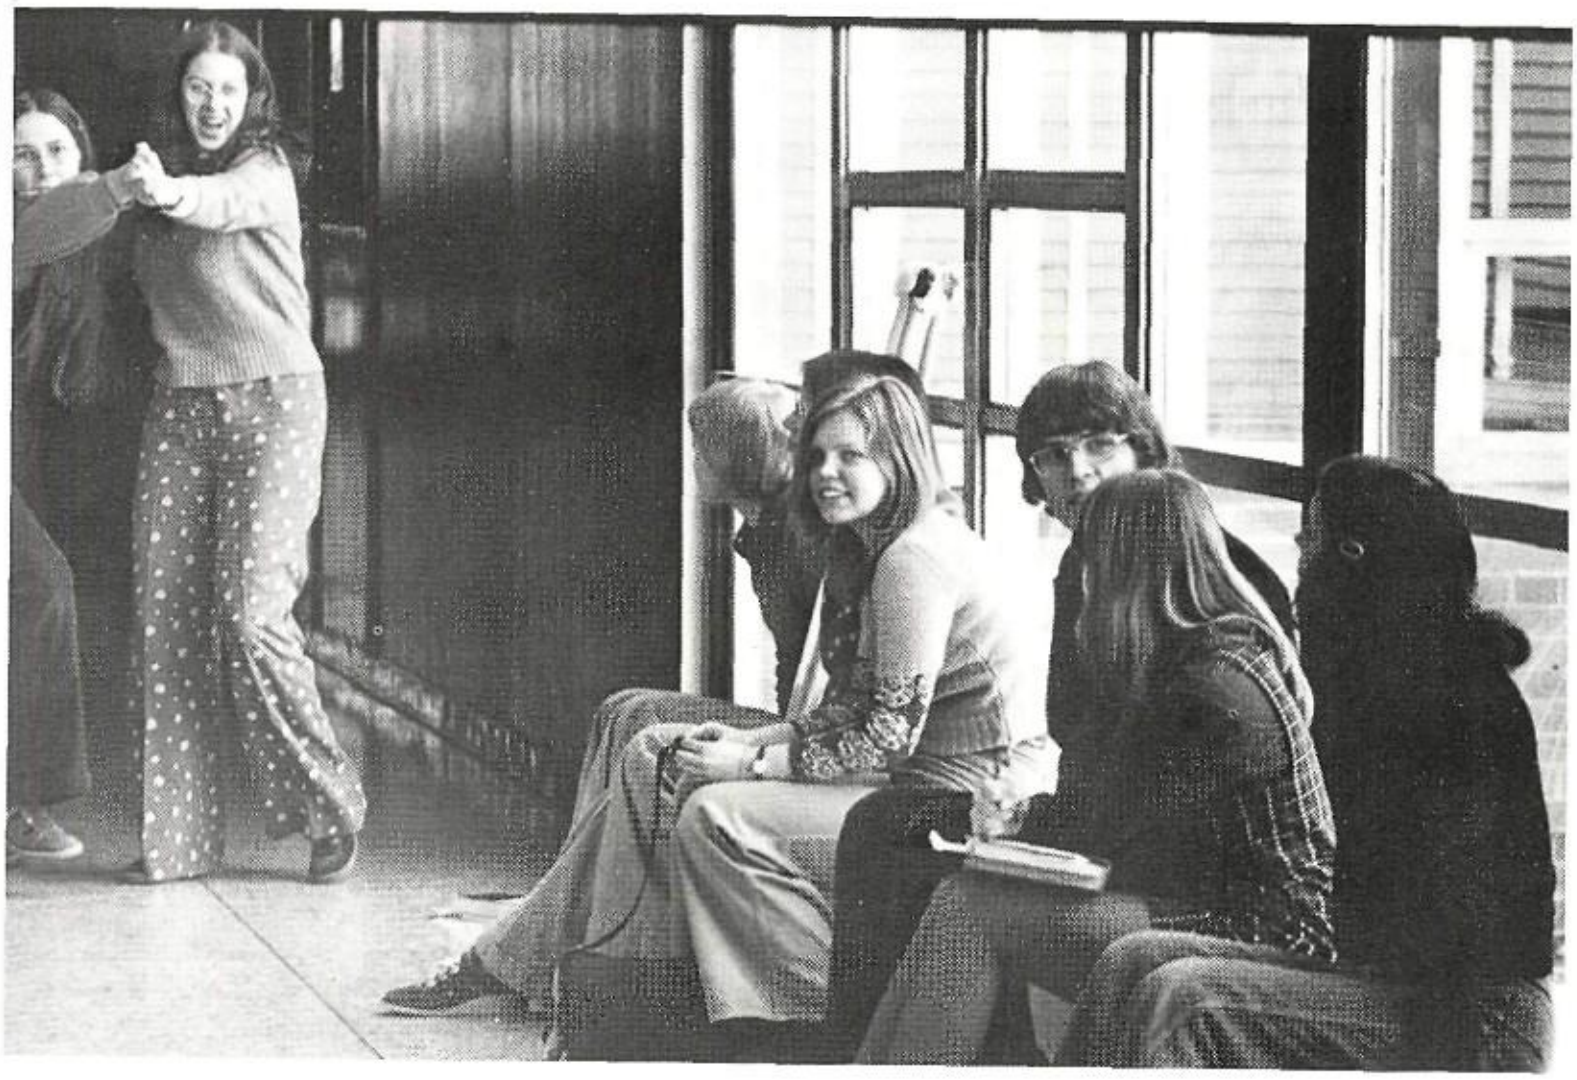
We may never pass this way again . . . . . .

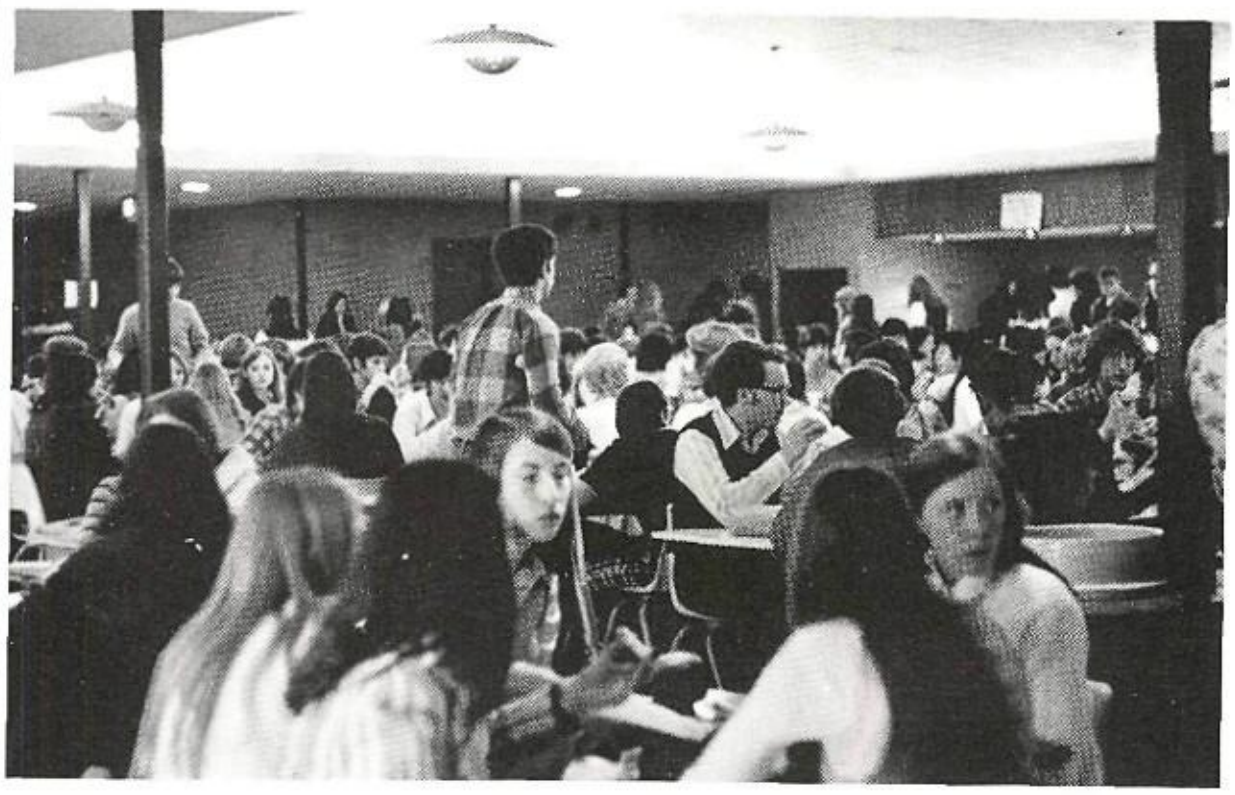


So, I want to laugh while the laughing is easy.
I want to cry if it makes it worth while
I may never pass this way again.
That's why I want to be with you.

Cause, You make me feel like I'm more than a friend;
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end.
I may never pass this way again.
That's why I want to be with you.







We may never pass this way again . . . .

WE MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

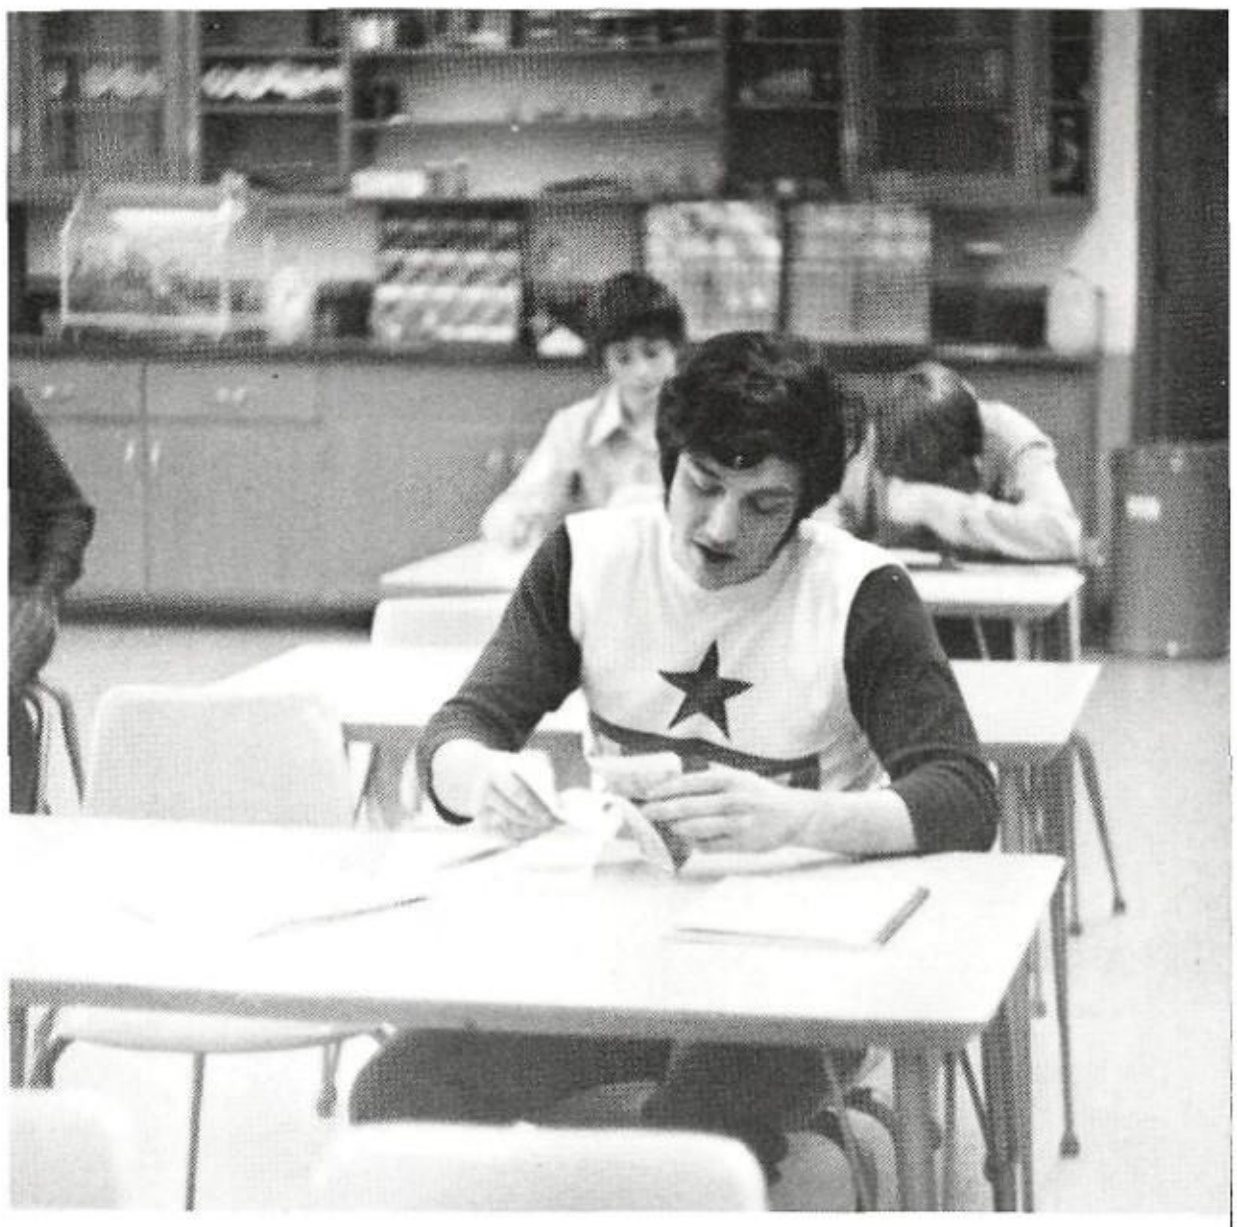
Poems

Unfolding Bud



One is amazed
By a water-lily bud
Unfolding
With each passing day,
Taking on a richer color
And a new dimensions.

One is not amazed,
At a first glance,
By a poem,
Which is as tight-closed
As a tiny bud.

Yet one is surprised To see the poem
Gradually unfolding,
Revealing unfolding,
Reveal its rich inner self,
As one reads it Again
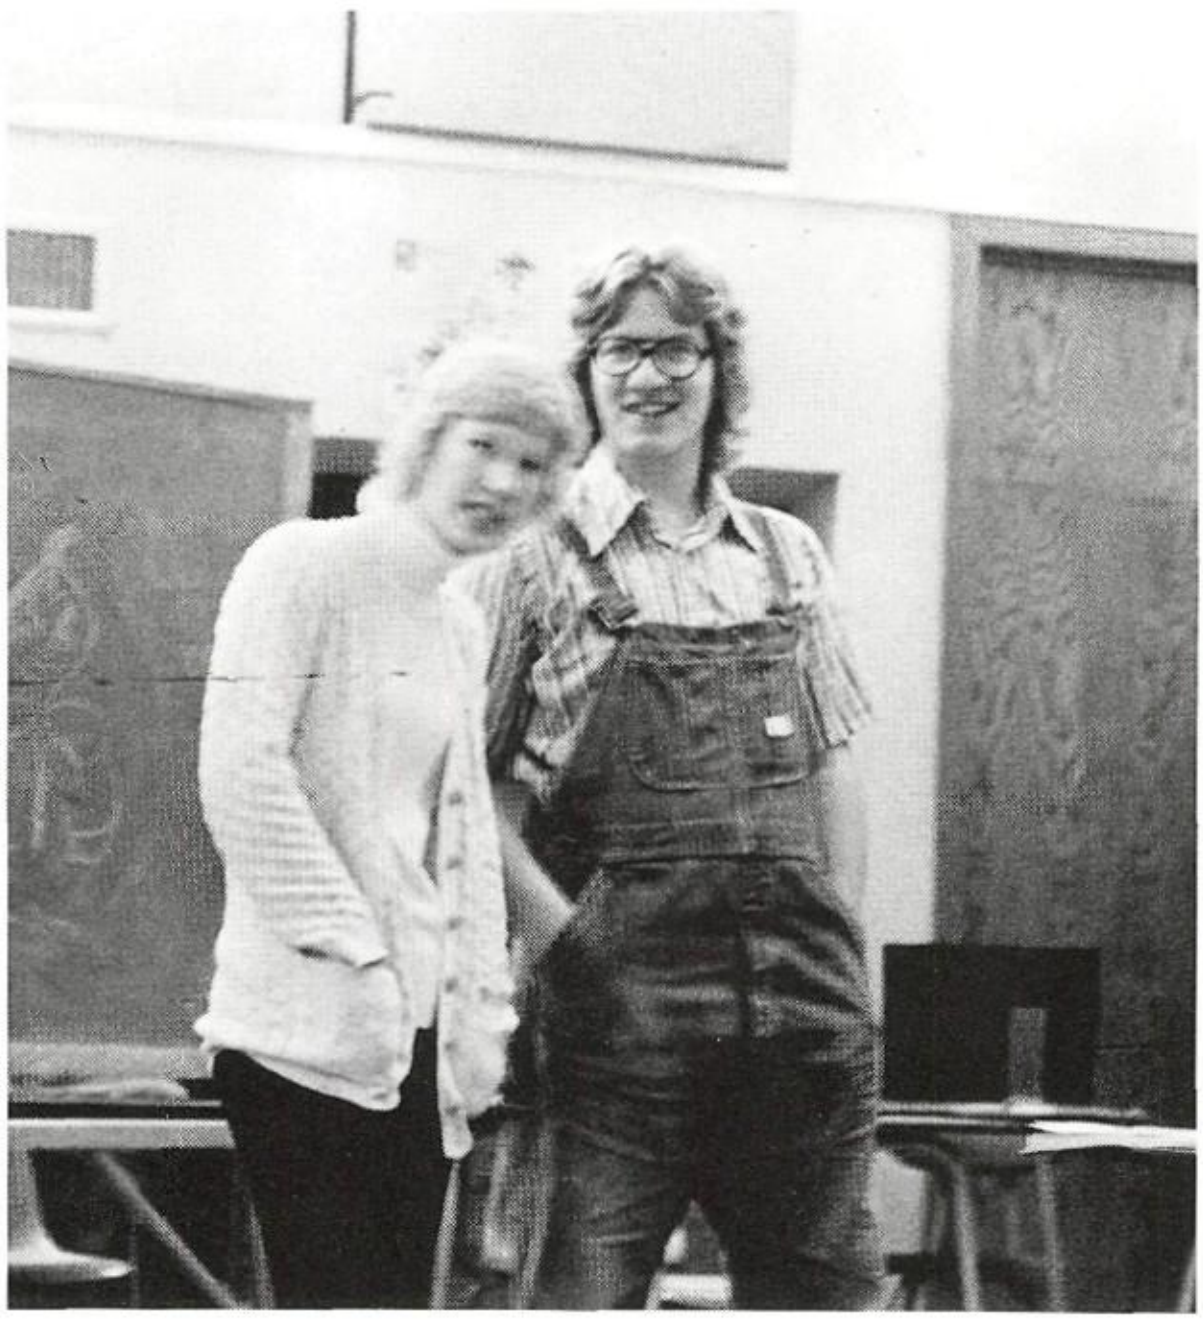
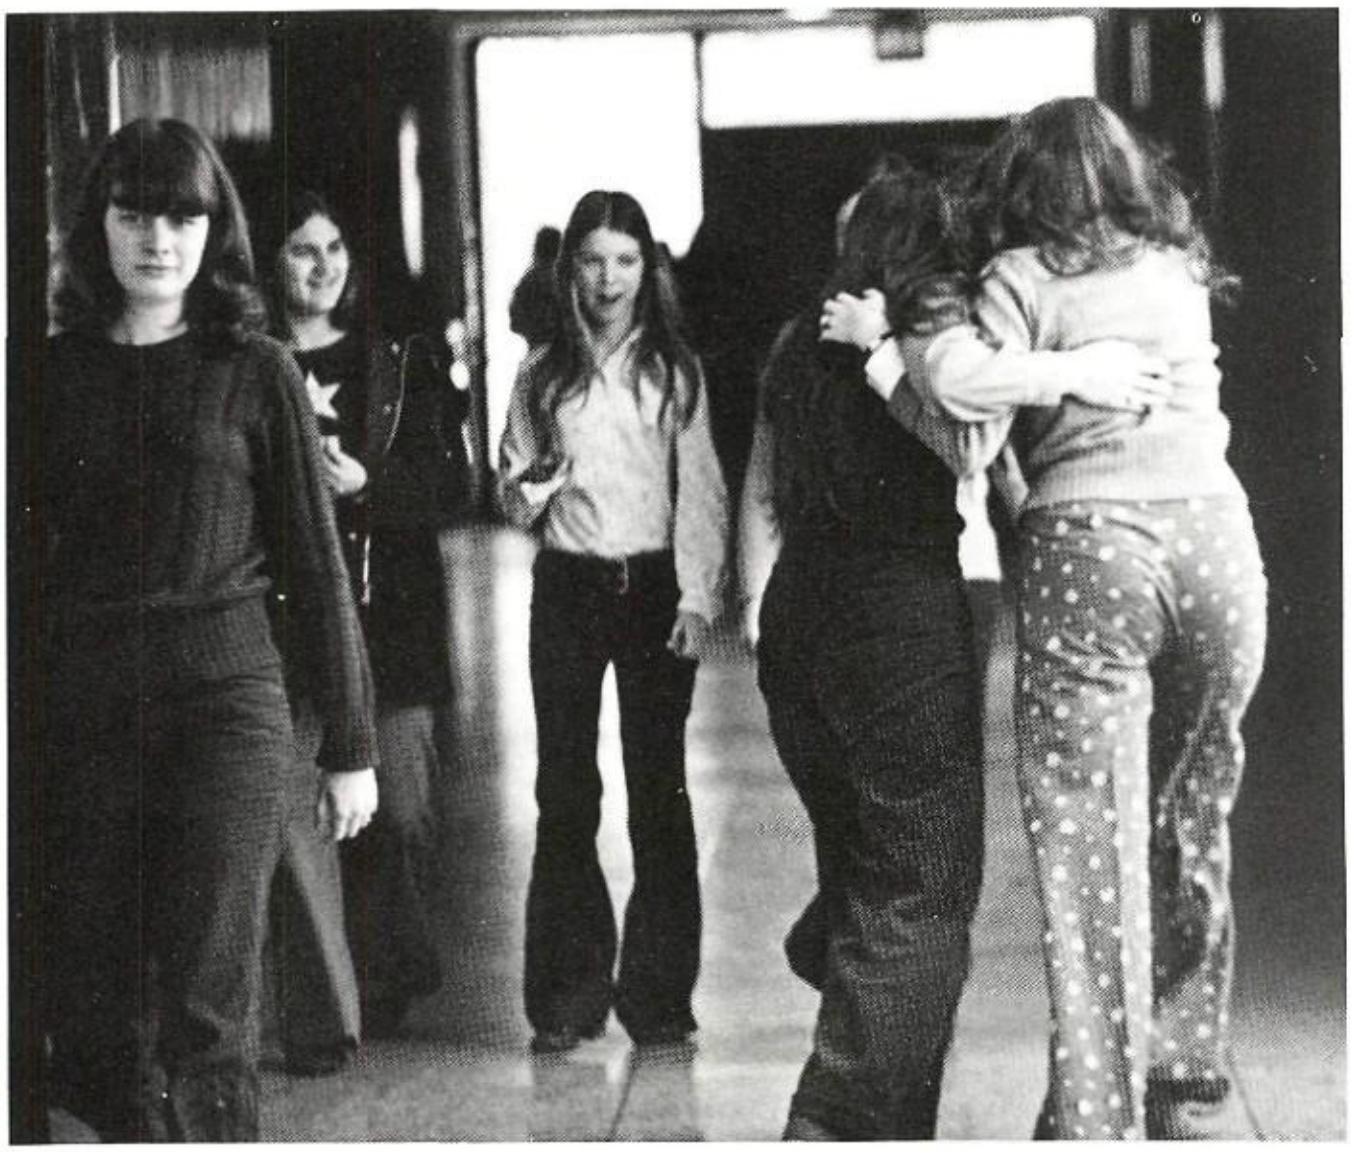
And over again.

Naoshi Koriyama





walking down the hallway
i reached the final door I knocked once, I knocked twice, but no one seemed to listen

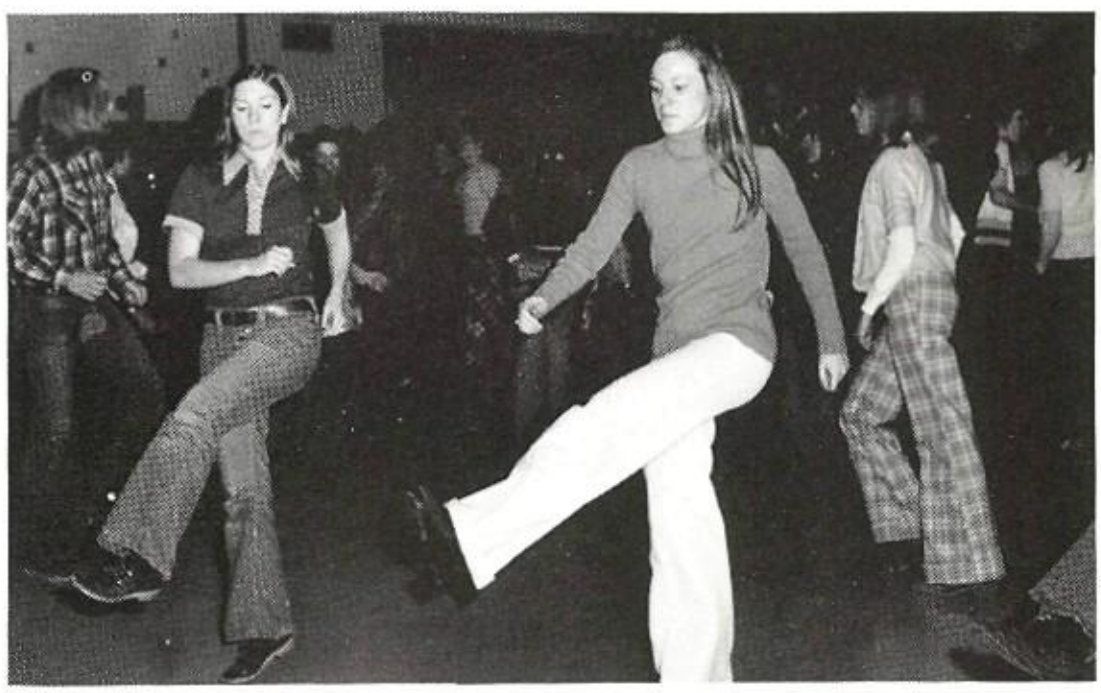
I gave up.

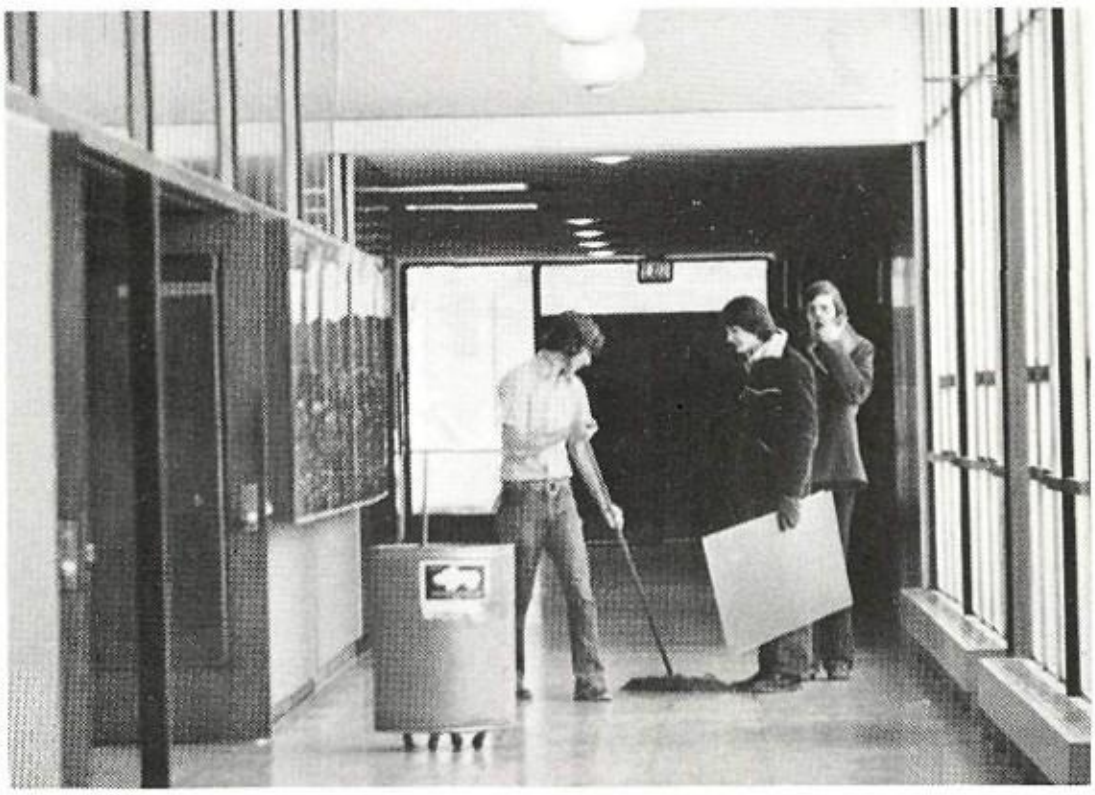
To A Friend

You entered my life in a casual way, and saw at a glance what I needed; there were others who passed me or met me each day, but never a one of them heeded. Perhaps you were thinking of other folks more or chance simply just seemed to decree it. I know there were many such chances before, but the others- well, they didn't see it.

You said just the thing that I wished you would say, and you made me believe you meant it. I held up my head in the old gallant way and resolved you should never redent it. There are times when encouragement means such alot, and a word is enough to convey it. There were others who could have, as easy as not— but, Just the same, they didn't say it.

There may have been someone who could have done more to help me along, but I doubt it. What I needed was cheering, and always before they had let me plod onward without it. You helped me re-fashion the dreams of my heart, and made me turn eagerly to it. There were others who might have (I question the part). But after all, they didn't do it!

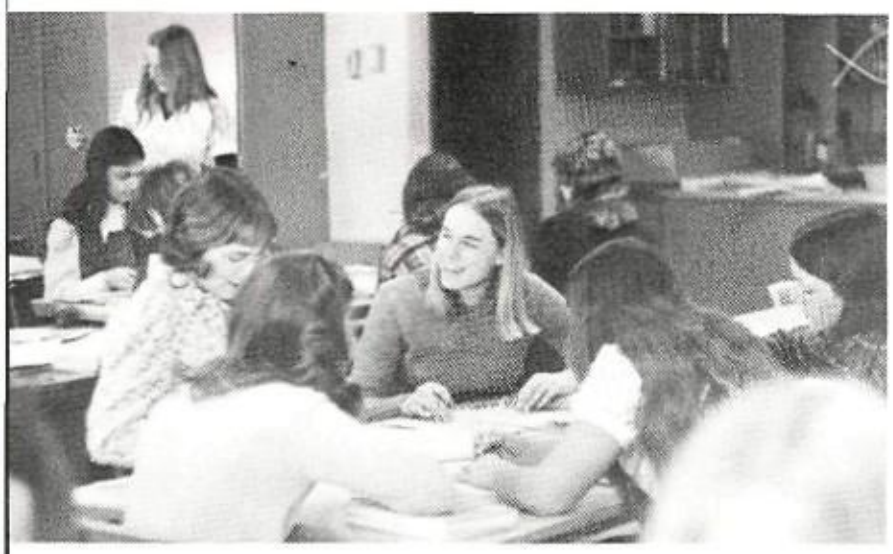




Life

Life is what we the people of the living make it to be. It is not the past, for the past is beautiful, because it was. Life is not the future because the future is but todays dreams. Life is the present. We the people are the present of today. We mold life into what it is. We are the creators, we make what we need to survive and only we can destroy our makings. We work and mold the materials of life with our best ability, creating today. We can't live the yesterdays, for yesterday is only today's memory. Life cannot be lived in the thought of tomorrow, because every tomorrow becomes today and would only be wasted on dreams for tomorrow.

But life is magnificent because it is today.



Dreams

old fast to dreams
or if dreams die fe is a broken-wing bird hat cannot fly.

old fast to dreams
or when dreams go fe is a barren field rozen with snow.

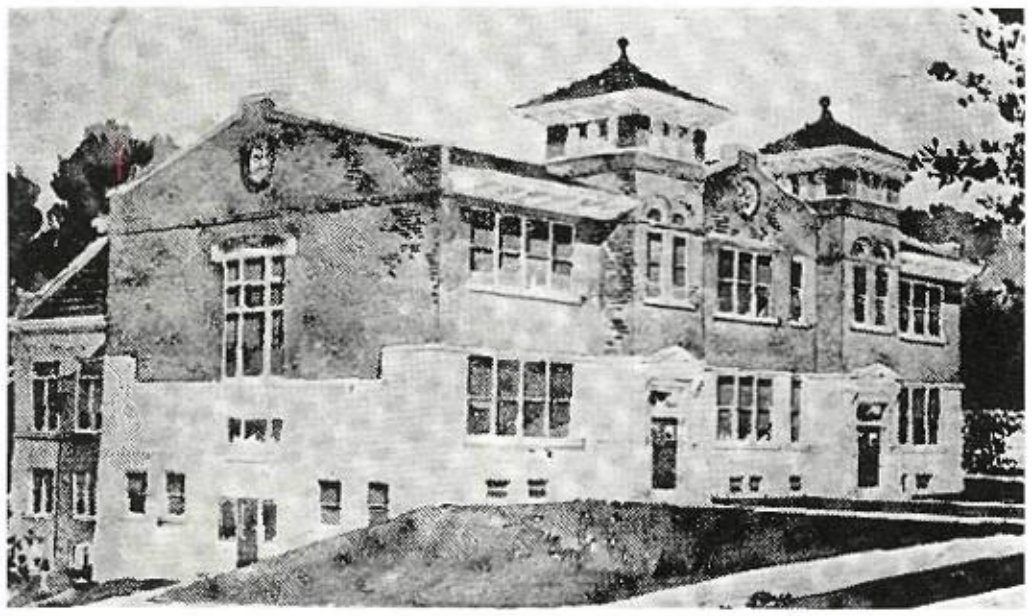
Langston Hughes



To Look at Anything

To Look at any thing,
If you would know that things,
You must look at it long:
To look at this green and say

"I have seen spring in these Woods," will not do — you must Be the thing you see:
You must be the dark snakes of Stems and ferny plumes of leaves, You must enter in To the small silences between The leaves,
You must take your time
And touch the very peace
They issue from.

John Moffitt

Happiness is a smile and a warm hello the sun glistening across a lake Happiness is hearing the birds singing just as the sun is rising Happiness is dew on a rose petal a new born kitten crying for it's mother
Happiness is the sun, wind, rain, and you.

Fifteen

South of the Bridge on Seventeenth I found back of the willows one summer day a motorcycle with engine running as it lay on its side, ticking over slowly in the high grass. I was fifteen.

I admired all that pulsing gleam, the shiny flanks, the demure headlights fringed where it lay; I led it gently to the road and stood with that companion, ready and friendly. I was fifteen.

We could find the end of a road, meet the sky on out Seventeenth. I thought about hills, and patting the handle got back a confident opinion. On the Bridge we indulged a forward feeling, a tremble. I was fifteen.

Thinking, back farther in the grass I found the owner, just coming to, where he had flipped Over the rail. He had blood on his hand, was pale — I helped him walk to his machine. He ran his hand over it, called me good man, roared away.

I stood there, fifteen.

William Srafford

HOW I FEEL

Hard to tell you how I feel Everything is so unreal Lord, but life is a hard thing to get to.
Saw my shadow on the wall Saw my love nowhere at all Saw my life as a hard thing to get through.

When you're born they carry you When you're gone they bury you In between you're on your own Hard to stand there all alone.

Someone's crying down the hall Dying crying they tell it all Lord, this life is a hard thing to live
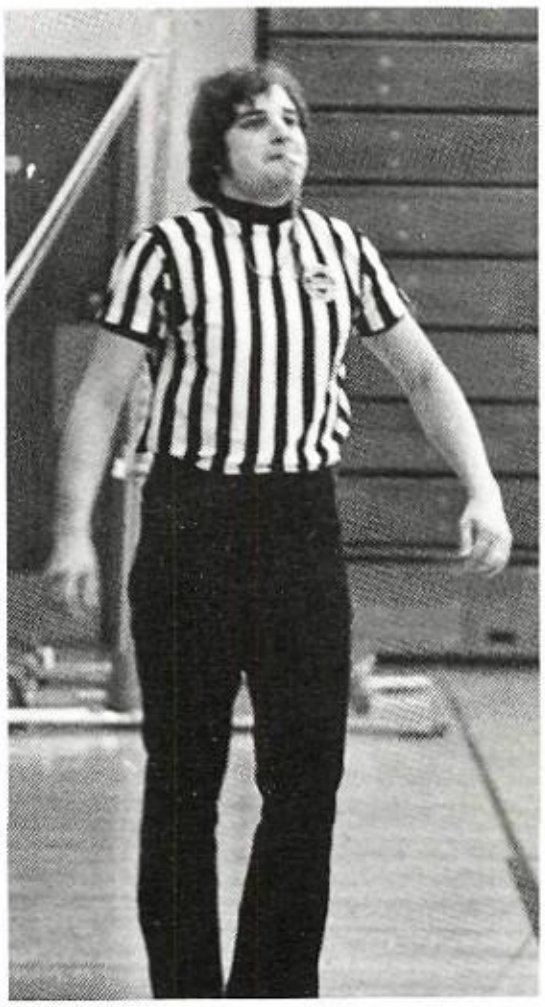
And harder still to leave



If this little world tonight
Suddenly should fall through space
In a hissing, headlong flight, Schrivelling from off its face,
As it falls into the sun,
In an instant every trace Of the little crawling things Ants, Philosophers, and lice.

Cattle, Cockroaches, and kings, Beggars, millionaires, and mice Men and maggots all as one
As it falls into the sun . . . . . .
Who can say but at the same Instant from some planet far A child may watch us and exclaim:
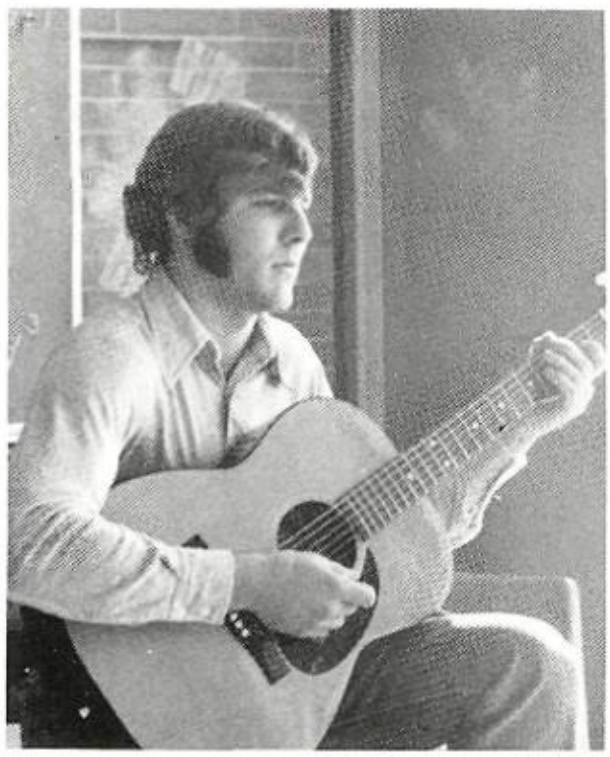
"See the pretty shooting star!"

EARTH

WHO CAN I TURN TO



Who can I turn to when nobody needs me?
My heart wants to know and so I must go where destiny leads me.
with no star to guide me, and no one beside me, I'll go on my way, and after the day,

The darkness will hide me,
And maybe tomorrow I'll find what I'm after I'll throw off my sorrow, beg steal or borrow my share of laughter.
With you I could learn to,
with you on a new day,
But who can I turn to if you turn away?

TOO BLUE

I got those sad old weary blues.
I don't know where to turn.
I don't know where to go.
Nobody cares about you
When you sink so low.

What shall I do?
What shall I say?
Shall I take a gun and Put myself away?
I wonder If
One bullet would do?
Hard as my head is,
I would probably take two.

But I ain't got Neither bullet nor gun
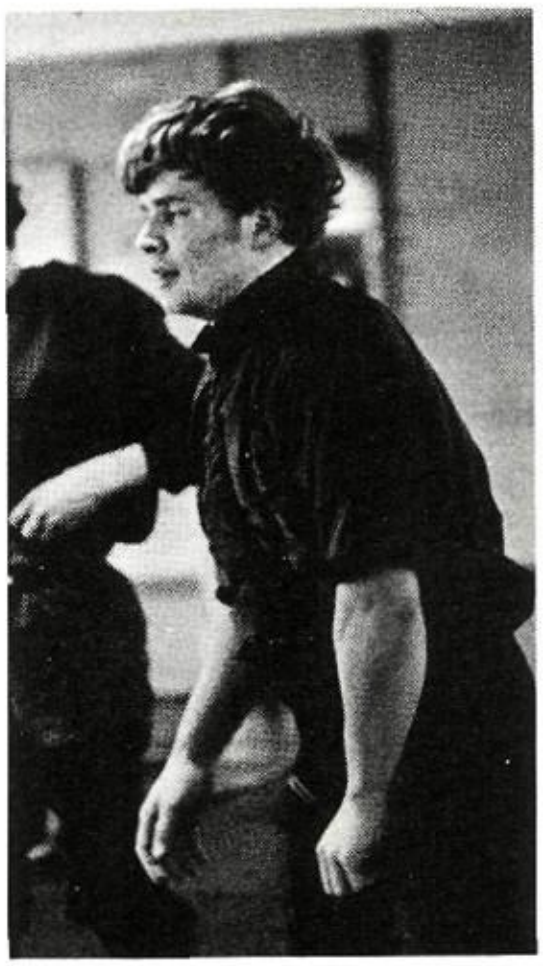
And I'm too blue
To look for one.



OZ.

Whoever discounts
The ounce as one of the smallest amounts has never met up with the ounce that belongs to the cat family.

The jungle ounce will jounce
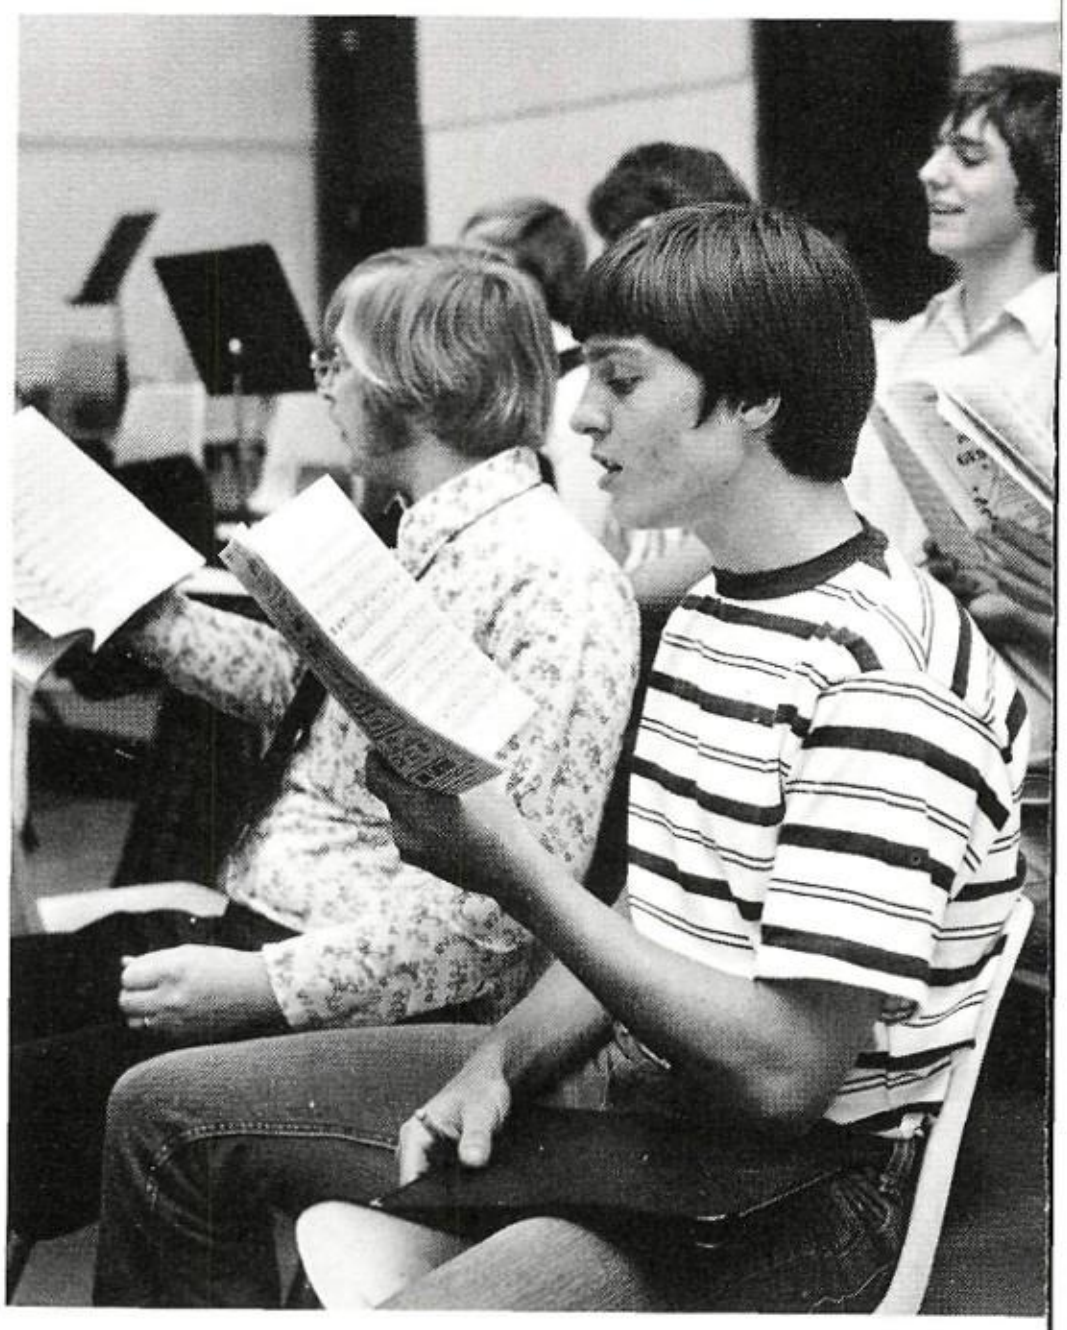
you out of complacency.
If you try to trounce
This ounce.



you will be chastened hastily;
for this ounce
does more than flounce;
this ounce can bounce;
this ounce can pounce.
So if you meet up with an ounce, announce yourself as a friend,
or it might be the End.

As I Whipped around a corner,
My books in my hands,
I came across another soul
Who knocked me on my can.
I got back on my feet
And brushed off all the dirt
I Find someone's old chewing gum Sticking to my skirt.
I had to shift to third
And pass some people by,
Late to class, gummed up skirt,
I soon began to cry.
I got to class and looked around
To find I had been doomed,
The faces were no just the same
I'm in the wrong room.

TEACHER

I was sitting in the classroom, Trying to look intelligent,
In case the teacher looked at me,
She was long and she was lean,
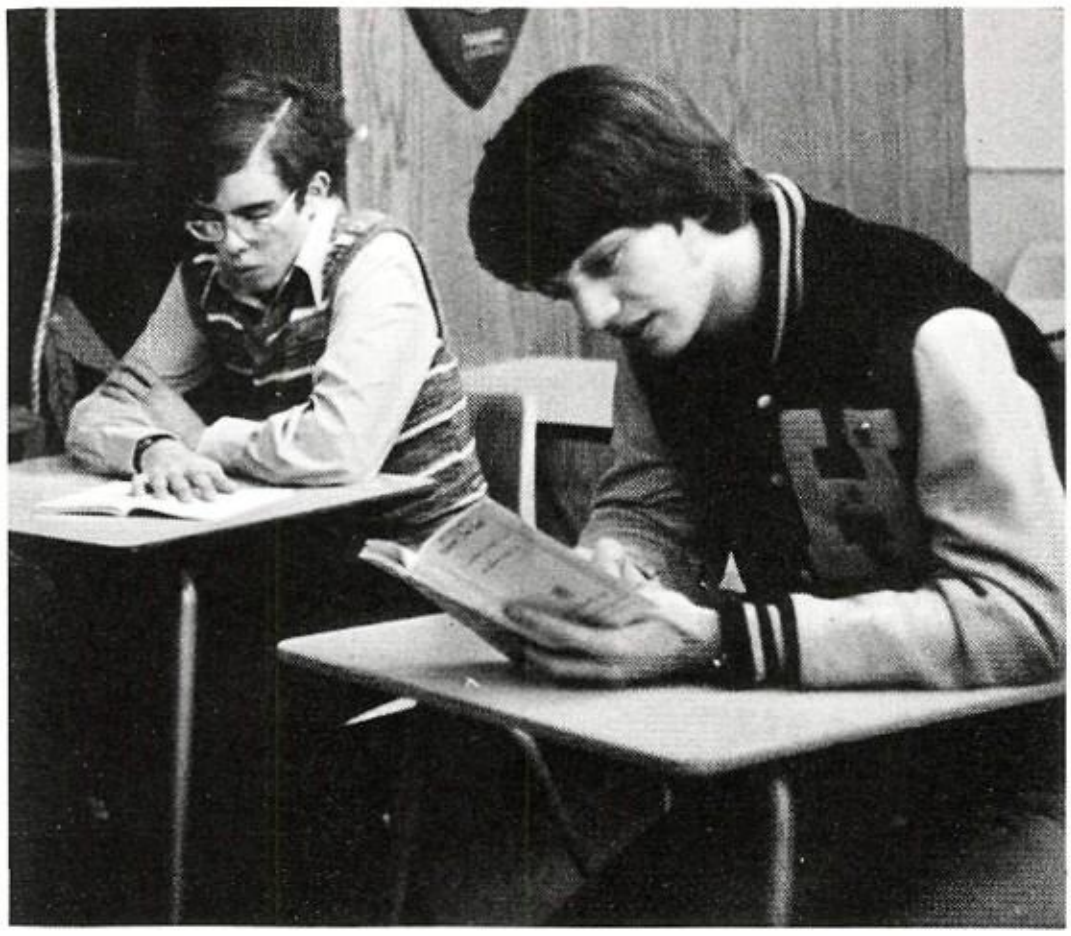
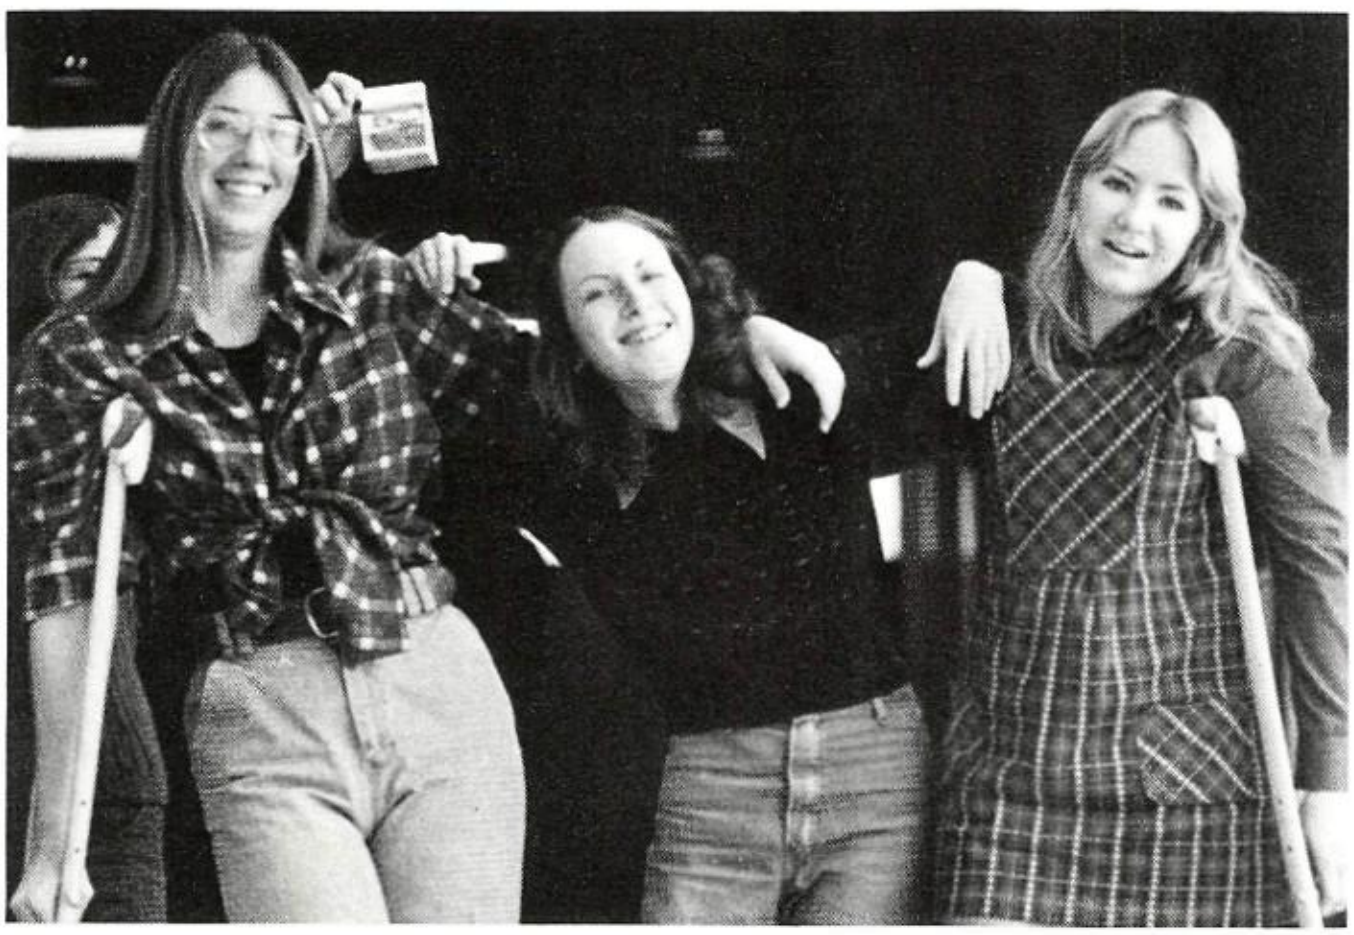
She's a middle-aged dream, and that lady means the whole world to me.





It's a natural achievement,
Conquering my homework,
With her image,
pounding in my brain,
She's an inspiration,
For my graduation,
And she helps to keep the classroom sane.

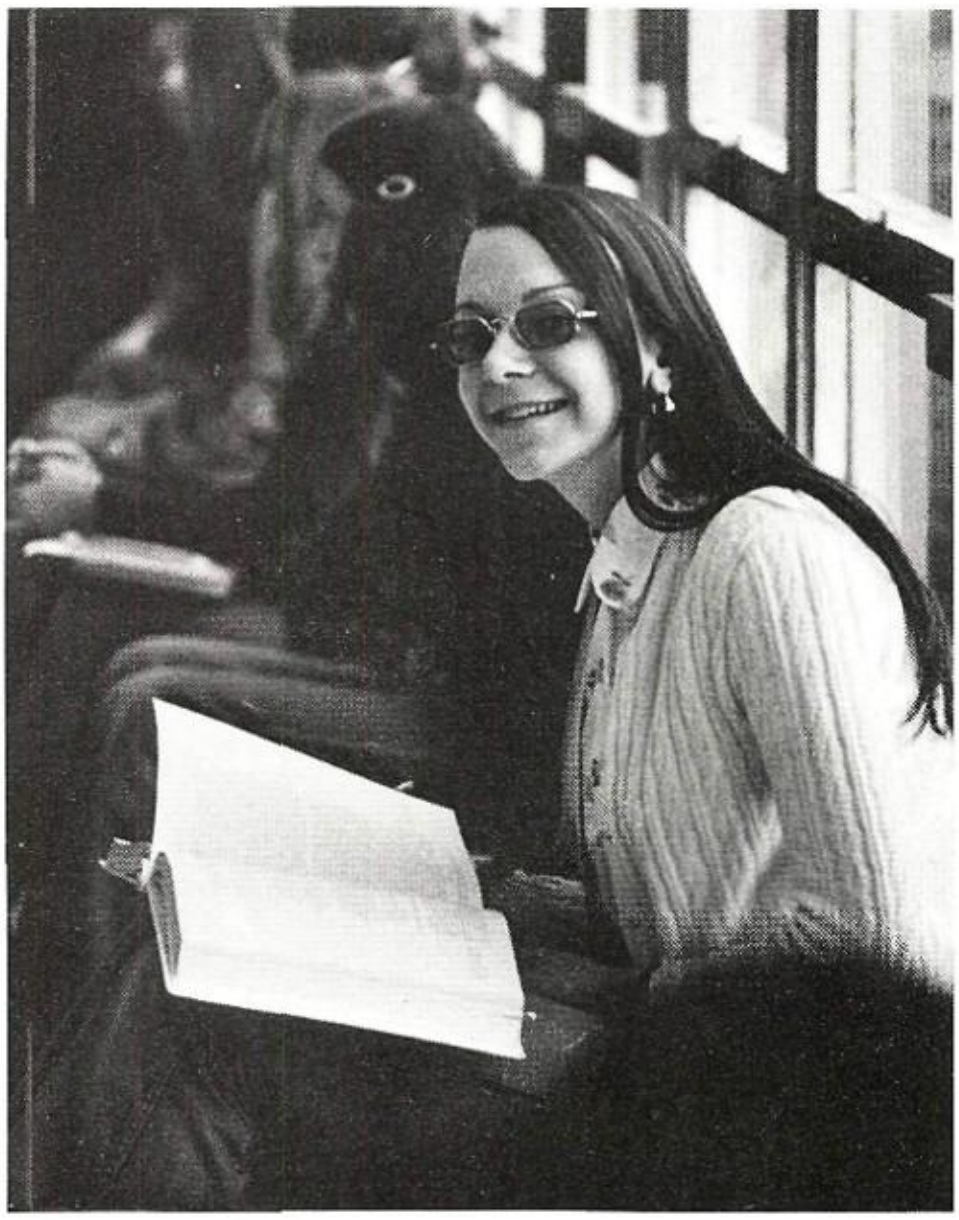
Oh, teacher I need you,
Like a little child,
You got something in you,
To drive a schoolboy wild.



You give me education,
In the lovesick blues,
Help me get straight, come out and say,
Teacher I, Teacher I, Teacher I,
Teacher I need you.

I have to write a letter,
Tell about my feelings,
Just to let her know the scene,
Focus my attention,
On some further education,
In connection with the birdies and the bees.
So I'm sitting in the classroom,
I'm looking like a zombie,
I'm waiting for the bell to ring,
I've got John Wayne stances, I've got Erroll Flynn advances,
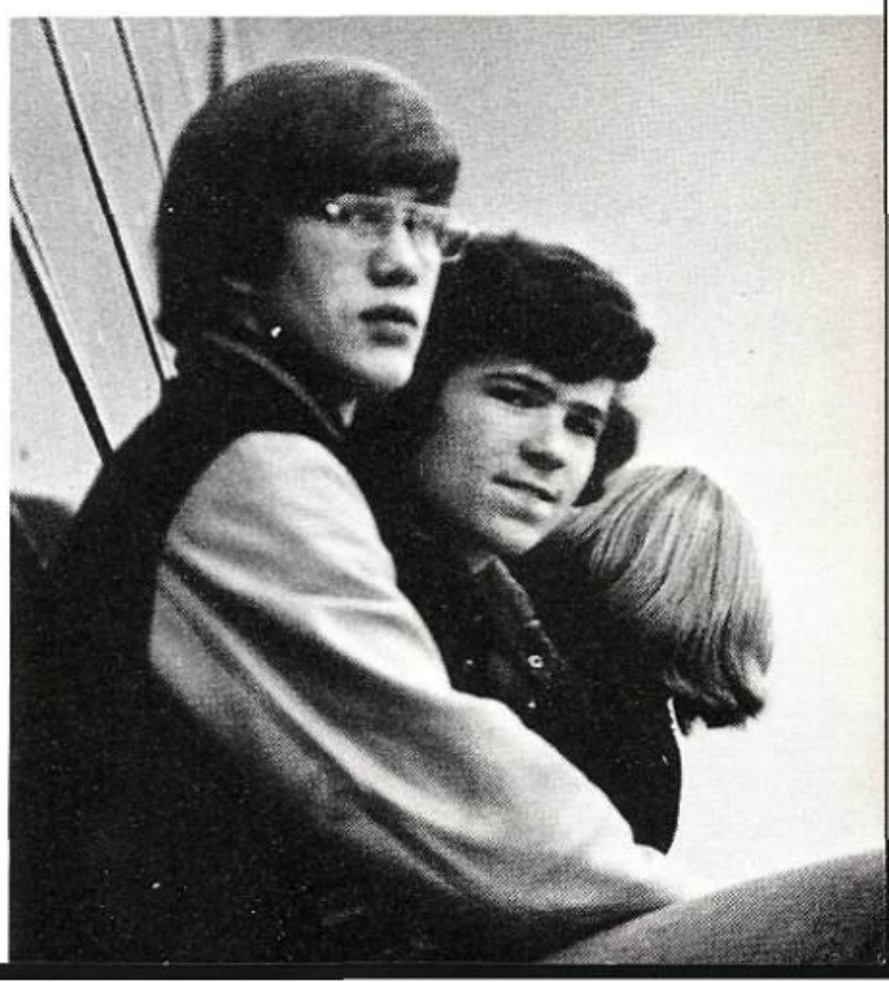
And it doesn't mean a doggone thing



ALONE

Who Weeps now anywhere in the world, senselessly weeps in the world,
weeps for me.

Who laughs now anywhere in the night, senselessly laughs in the night,
laughs me down.
Who walks now anywhere in the world, senselessly walks in the world,
walks my way.
Who dies now anywhere in the world, senselessly dies in the world,
sees my face.
